

Master of Ministry Leadership Degree

(2 year program)

The Master of Ministry Leadership (MML) is a professional degree designed for men and women who have a bachelor's degree and are serving on a church staff or in other ministry positions. The focus of this degree is on developing servant leadership skills for local church ministry. The curriculum may be completed in two years, although many students take longer due to family, church, and job responsibilities.

MML Goals:

1. Graduates will demonstrate an understanding of God's purpose in their lives and adjust their lives according to that purpose.
2. Graduates will demonstrate an understanding of how to lead a church in nurturing the spiritual life and worship God.
3. Graduates will demonstrate understanding of how to lead a church in sharing the faith in word and deed.
4. Graduates will demonstrate understanding of how to lead a church or ministry to study the Bible and help others grow spiritually.
5. Graduates will demonstrate how to lead a church in equipping and mobilizing others for ministry.
6. Graduates will demonstrate understanding in leading a church in developing effective relationships with others.
7. Graduates will demonstrate cognitive and affective skills required of a ministry leader.
8. Graduates will demonstrate a commitment to a lifelong, intentional process of spiritual development and professional growth.

Summative Evaluation: Development of a portfolio that demonstrates the accomplishment of the program goals and competencies for ministry.
